

God is Raising His Voice

The Pacific Northwest Ring of Fire

The eruption of Mount St. Helens on May 18, 1980 was the most deadly and economically destructive volcanic event in the history of the United States. The explosion spewed ash across eleven states killing 57 people and causing over a billion dollars in property damage.

Past Prophecies: In the early 1970s, at a time when the Holy Spirit moved across the nation, many prophecies had warned of the Northwest and Puget Sound area being devastated by earthquakes. Many thought St. Helens' eruption was the fulfillment of those prophecies.

The Pacific Northwest Ring of Fire is a small part of the larger Pacific Ring of Fire. Scientists to explain all the earthquake and volcanic activity that are now constant news headlines use these terms. Scientists continually warn of a coming cataclysmic seismic event to the Northwest but have no way of predicting when.

Birth Pangs of the Coming Kingdom: However, God knows when these events will occur and soon he will allow them to come to pass in the Pacific Northwest and the Puget Sound region. Chile, Bolivia, Mexico, Japan, New Zealand and the Philippines all have had recent birth-pang earthquake events. And now God is raising his voice once again to warn Christians in this nation by igniting the Pacific Northwest Ring of Fire.

Prophetic Warning: The United States is about to take another hit in these birth pangs that Christ predicted would point to the final days of this age.

Afflictions, distress, perplexities of the nations and the upheaval of nature are meant to awaken God's people from complacency, reminding us that Christ's return is imminent. God is about to raise his voice through more earthquakes, through trouble and through strange prophecies, dreams and visions by ordinary unchurched people. Few Christians are hearing from God and becoming prepared. This prophetic message is given to help those who have an ear to hear—to wake up in time before the midnight cry—and not be found as a foolish maiden at Christ's appearance and be locked out of the coming marriage feast.
